

Audio-Visual Materials Selection Guidelines

Video

A broad range of popular and instructional materials will be selected. Suggestions from the public are welcome. The collection will emphasize a diverse selection for children and adults. Movies with an X rating will not be purchased. R-rated movies will be purchased on a limited basis according to national film awards.

Audiobooks

Fiction and non-fiction titles will be purchased in the best current format for both Children and Adults. Quality, popularity and suggestions will be a basis for selection. Unabridged formats are preferred.

Musical Works

Musical works will be purchased in the best current format for Children and Adults. A balanced collection covering all genres that will appeal to our community is our goal.

Patrons may request specific titles to be added to these collections. The purchase decision is made by the appropriate collection development librarian.
